

UTTARA UNIVERSITY

Quality Education at Affordable Tuition

I am very happy to learn that Uttara University is going to hold its 6th Convocation in a befitting manner. On this joyful occasion, I would like to extend my heartfelt congratulations to the graduating students, erudite faculty of different departments and all concerned of Uttara University.

Education is called the backbone of a nation which plays an important role in building a knowledge-based society. It also empowers the people and helps to attain equitable and just society. There is no alternative to education for building an esteemed nation and achieving sustainable development. Keeping that in mind, the Government has attached topnotch priority to ameliorate the socio-economic condition of the country by putting emphasis on education. I hope that universities, both private and public, will play seminal role in imparting quality education as well as disseminating and acquiring knowledge. Educational excellence is bound up with research and innovation. I hope that Uttara University would provide state-of-the-art education along with moral values to its students for the sake of the nation

Imbued with the spirit of patriotism and war of liberation, I hope that the graduating students of Uttara University will serve the nation with utmost dedication. I once again, congratulate the graduating students on their brilliant accomplishment and wish them a very bright future.

I wish the 6th Convocation of Uttara University a grand success.

I am delighted to know that Uttara University is going to hold its 6th Convocation on 30 October 2018. On this auspicious occasion, I would like to extend my heartiest congratulations and felicitations to the graduating students, their proud parents, the faculty members and the management of the university.

At present, private universities are an integral part of higher education of Bangladesh and making substantial contributions to infuse knowledge and skills to the graduating students who, in turn are playing a vital role in building their career and promoting economic development of the country. Education without quality, mission, vision and sound objectives is just an instrument of personal gratification. I believe that Uttara University is well aware of this and moving in the right direction to produce skilled and accomplished manpower by mparting quality education from its inception. I look forward to the graduating students contributing for their country as true patriots and for the world as well
